

WHS INDUCTION & TRAINING PROCEDURE

Version No	3.0
Issued	23 rd Aug 2016
Next Review	August 2019
GDS	12.63.1

1. OVERVIEW

The District Council of Orroroo Carrieton (the organisation) is committed to providing suitable and adequate information, instruction and training as necessary to protect persons from risks to their health and safety arising from work carried out as part of the conduct of Council's business or undertaking.

This Procedure aims to:

- (a) Promote compliance with legislative requirements; and
- (b) Outline the system in place that provides initial and ongoing training, including the continuous development of Work Health and Safety (WHS) skills.

SIGNED

Chief Executive Officer

Date: 23 / 8 / 2016

Deputy Chairperson, WHS Committee

Date: 23 / 8 / 2016

2. CORE COMPONENTS

The core components of our WHS Induction and Training Procedure aim to:

- (a) Implement a system for the identification and provision of necessary WHS information, instruction and training;
- (b) Provide for nominated staff that are competent to deliver the induction package to new workers;
- (c) Provide information, training and instruction in a way that is readily understandable to any person to whom it is provided;
- (d) Evaluate each inductee's understanding of the organisation's WHS requirements;
- (e) Maintain records of the induction process, training undertaken and competencies achieved;
- (f) Identify core competencies for job roles as part of a Training Needs Analysis ('TNA') process;
- (g) Develop and implement a training plan that links to the TNA;
- (h) Assess training for suitability and adequacy on a regular basis with any identified improvements made; and
- (i) Provide workers with information, instruction and training that is necessary to protect themselves from risks to health and safety, having regard to their role.

3. DEFINITIONS

Competent person	A person who has acquired through training, qualifications or experience the knowledge and skills to carry out the task. [as defined in the Work Health and Safety Regulations 2012 Regulation 5]
Training Needs Analysis (TNA)	After examining legislative requirements, identifying individual tasks within specific jobs and the core competencies required for the safe performance of those jobs, the TNA is the formal process of identifying and recording the training gap and its related training need.

Performance Indicator	A selected indicator of how effectively a process is operating against objectives. These indicators can be quantitative or qualitative and the choice is dependent upon the type of element they are used to measure, as appropriate to the organisation. [as defined by the ReturnToWorkSA Performance Standards for Self-Insurers]
PSSI	Performance Standards for Self Insurers
Volunteer	Volunteer means a person who is acting on a voluntary basis (irrespective of whether the person receives out-of-pocket expenses). [as defined in the Work Health and Safety Act 2012]
Worker	A person is a 'worker' if the person carries out work in any capacity for the organisation, including work as— (a) an employee; or (b) a contractor or subcontractor; or (c) an employee of a contractor or subcontractor; or (d) an employee of a labour hire company who has been assigned to work in the person's business or undertaking; or (e) an outworker; or (f) an apprentice or trainee; or (g) a student gaining work experience; or (h) a volunteer. [as per the Work Health and Safety Act 2012, Section 7]

4. PROCEDURE

4.1. Identification of the organisation's WHS training needs.

- 4.1.1. The outcomes of the organisation's management review process should include a determination of WHS training objectives, targets and performance indicators for the current period.
- 4.1.2. The Manager of Corporate & Community Service will identify the corporate WHS training needs on an annual basis. These should include but not be limited to:
- General induction information to the organisation for workers, volunteers, contractors, visitors and work experience students;
 - Generic WHS training requirements for staff of all levels, including training to increase worker familiarity with the organisation's WHS policies and procedures, and
 - Training required for specific roles in the WHS management system (eg first aid officer, fire warden, internal WHS auditor, health and safety representative (HSR), Health and Safety Committee (HSC) member, persons responsible for training functions etc.)
- 4.1.3. The department manager will check that the core competencies for job functions within the department have been identified on an annual basis. Core competencies should be identified by reviewing:
- Previous TNA requirements;
 - Legislative requirements for:
 - Required licensing (for example for high risk work, driving, confined spaces etc);
 - New or existing activities; and
 - Work associated with the use of plant or chemicals.
 - Accident or incident data or trends;
 - Audit results and WHS performance within the department;
 - Hazard profile;

- f) Risk assessments;
 - g) Person and job specifications (position descriptions)
 - h) Performance appraisal outcomes; and
 - i) Any other relevant data.
- 4.1.4. In identifying whether the core competencies are suitable and adequate, the department manager should have regard to:
- a) The nature of the work carried out by the worker;
 - b) The nature of the risks associated with the work at the time the information, training or instruction is given; and
 - c) The control measures implemented.
- 4.1.5. The nominated person will consolidate all identified needs into a draft TNA.
- 4.2. Consultation and approval of TNA
- 4.2.1. The draft TNA should be discussed at the HSC and/or with HSRs, workers and other stakeholders and amended as necessary prior to management approval.
- 4.2.2. The management team will review the draft TNA, together with feedback from stakeholders, in line with identified priorities and resourcing requirements and approve a final document that balances these aspects appropriately.
- 4.2.3. The Manager of Corporate & Community Services will update the TNA to reflect agreed outcomes.
- 4.2.4. The approved document will be readily understandable and made accessible to all managers and supervisors.
- 4.3. Development and implementation of a training plan
- 4.3.1. The Manager of Corporate & Community Services will develop the training plan that reflects the training needs identified in the TNA.
- 4.3.2. The training plan will cover a defined timeframe and be accessible to all managers and workers.
- 4.3.3. Department managers will be accountable for all persons under their control attending required training sessions.
The department manager or supervisor should notify persons scheduled for training of the requirement to attend training in advance of the scheduled date and adjust work priorities to allow them to attend.
- 4.4. Training delivery
- 4.4.1. Training will be delivered by authorised persons or external providers who have:
- a) WHS qualifications or relevant related experience; and/or
 - b) Relevant skills and experience in delivering training; or
 - c) Approval as a suitable trainer or training provider by the management team.
- 4.4.2. An accredited and/or registered training organisation should deliver any legislatively mandated training (eg HSR, first aid, high risk work licenses etc).
- 4.4.3. All WHS training should include clearly stated learning outcomes and, where relevant, include a competency or assessment activity related to the learning outcomes.
The Manager of Corporate & Community Services should determine the most appropriate method of assessment in consultation with the trainer, dependent upon the training being delivered (eg information only, instruction or competency assessment).
- 4.4.4. Training will be provided in a language and/or format that is readily understandable by the trainee group taking into account numeracy and/or literacy requirements.
- 4.4.5. Each department will provide a WHS induction to new workers on the first day of, or prior to commencing, work.

- a) The Manager of Corporate & Community Services will make sure that information packages are available that outline the general & specific WHS information to be delivered.
 - b) The department manager will make sure adequate supervision is provided to the new worker so that that any restrictions outlined in the induction process are adhered to and that the new worker is competent to undertake the task without causing a risk to the health and safety of themselves or others.
- 4.4.6. Attendees of inductions should be given the opportunity to comment on training at the end of each session by completing a training evaluation form (Appendix 2).
- 4.4.7. A record of the induction, training and assessment process must be retained (Appendix 1).
- 4.5. Monitoring and enforcing training
- 4.5.1. The Manager of Corporate & Community Services will monitor gaps in training attendance.
- 4.5.2. Corrective actions including performance management will be implemented so that any person who missed scheduled training is provided with the training within a suitable timeframe.
- 4.5.3. The Manager of Corporate & Community Services will provide a quarterly training report to the HSC and management team, which covers:
- a) Training planned versus training undertaken;
 - b) Attendance levels;
 - c) Outcomes of training assessments and evaluations;
 - d) Progress against WHS training objectives, targets and performance indicators; and
 - e) Other relevant information as indicated.
- 4.5.4. The management team will monitor the training report and
- a) Enforce attendance or other relevant preventative or corrective action when required;
 - i. Repeated non-attendance by workers at required training may result in the performance management process being applied to the worker or the department manager, subject to the particular circumstances that have resulted in non-attendance.
 - ii. Failure by volunteers and work experience staff to attend required training may result in them being suspended from or unable to continue in that role.
 - b) Respond to any issue raised by managers, supervisors, HSC or stakeholders in relation to training.
- 4.5.5. As a result of management team direction, corrective action plans will be developed to rectify any identified issue/s associated with WHS training.
- 4.6. Training review
- 4.6.1. Training will be reviewed as part of the annual management review process, or more frequently if legislation or organisational needs change.
- 4.6.2. The annual management review process will include an analysis of:
- a) The level of achievement of any WHS training objectives and targets;
 - b) Incident and hazard reports and the relationships to any training provided;
 - c) The assessment process and outcomes achieved;
 - d) Feedback from department managers, workers and stakeholders, where relevant, regarding delivered training eg the adequacy of training courses, its content and delivery style;
 - e) Training costs; and
 - f) Any other relevant information.

- 4.6.3. The HSC should have input into the management review process. The management team will undertake the review in accordance with the organisation's Planning and Program Development Procedure.
- 4.6.4. An assessment of the documented results of reviews should determine the scope and content of training for the next period.
- 4.6.5. The review process may result in preventative and/or corrective action being implemented, (which may include revision and/or amendment of this procedure).

5. TRAINING

- 5.1. The organisation's induction process will include an overview of its WHS management system and department specific requirements & obligations.
- 5.2. Managers, Supervisors and the HSC should be trained in the requirements of the PSSI.
- 5.3. Any person who is required to undertake tasks and activities requiring legislatively mandated training shall be trained by an accredited and/or registered training organisation.

6. RECORDS

The following records should be maintained:

- 6.1. Induction records.
- 6.2. Training Needs Analysis.
- 6.3. Training plans.
- 6.4. Training records.
- 6.5. Consultation, approval and review records
